These applications are for anticipatory bail. The petitioners claimed to be facing indictment in prosecutions under Section 138 of the N.I. Act. No details of the case, in which warrant is issued, is made available to the Court.

2. After discussions at the Bar, the learned counsel for the petitioners prays for some time to make available to court the details of the warrants, in execution of which they are sought to be apprehended. I note that these applications have been unnecessarily remaining on file from 19.12.2006. The petitioners are granted time finally till 20.7.07 to furnish the relevant details on which he seek anticipatory bail. It is made clear that if such details are not furnished, these petitions shall be dismissed on the next date of posting.

3. It is seen that as many as seven bail applications filed in 2006 are boarded for consideration today. The Registry shall explain why and under what circumstance such old petitions are pending. If there are petitions more than 45 days old, they shall be posted before court on 10.7.2007.
